

RTP has been acquired by The Active Network, Inc.

St. Charles Capital acted as exclusive financial advisor to RTP in this transaction

RTP, LLC is an enterprise technology solutions company serving the ski, parks, attractions and destination resort markets. RTP's technologies manage critical commerce functions such as ticketing, point-of-sale, eCommerce, RFID access control, mobile commerce and third-party channel ticket management. Customers include Aspen Skiing Company, Intrawest, Powdr Corp., SkiStar, Vail Resorts and VERBIER-St-Bernard.

Headquartered in San Diego, The Active Network, Inc. is a publicly traded (NYSE: ACTV) provider of organization-based cloud computing applications serving diverse market segments including business events, community activities, outdoors and sports.

This transaction will expand Active Network's global customer reach through enterprise technology serving the ski, parks, attractions and destination resort markets. Active Network plans to continue selling and supporting the RTP product and service portfolio.

Charlie L'Esperance, President and Chief Executive Officer of RTP said, "St. Charles Capital has been a valuable long-term strategic partner to our company and was instrumental in helping RTP to realize a successful transaction outcome."
